But desiring to perfect himself for the work of his chosen profession he entered Boston University for a two years course in law in 1 00. From 1902 to 1905 he resumed the practice in Cannelton, during which time he was connected with many very important cases of litigation in the Supreme Court in addition to his work in the local courts. In January, 1905, he was appointed Assistant Reporter of the Supreme Court under Hon. George W. Self. Although his work here is of an important and responsible character, Mr. Esarey s friends do not doubt tor a moment that he will measure up to the full requirements of his res ponsibilities and duties. Mr. Esarey was married to Emma L. Clark, February...
