All right; said the great financier, How high do you estimate my fortune? Forty million florins, was the answer. Good, that is just the number of inhabitants of Germany, and will give a florin to each. Here is your florin; send along the others! How often do we hear this anecdote in Germany to show how small the share of the poor would be, even if all the wealth of the rich were evenly divided among them! So Neumann Spallart, one of the first German statisticians, calculates that, if the wealth of the higher incomes of Saxony was distributed among the total of inhabitants, there would be not more than 54 mark increase of income for each taxpayer. Such calculations mixed with a few extracts from the drugshops of...
