Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In the fourth novel of the Gabriel de Sade series, the tough New York homicide detective is up against his greatest challenge. A gruesome discovery close to Opus Dei headquarters in New York City points the finger at a religious maniac. A new serial killer is on the loose. Yet a chance discovery at the crime scene points in a new and different direction - Seville, Spain. Home of one of the largest cathedrals in Christendom, burial site of Christopher Columbus, discoverer of America, and the stalking ground of the most inventive and dangerous serial killer de Sade and his partner have ever faced. A real thrill-a-minute rollercoaster, where the action crosses the Atlantic to Spain, up into the frozen snows of the Sierra Nevada, and back to New York. And de Sade finds that he has only his closest friend to trust when the police forces of two great nations are set to stop him pursuing his quarry to the very end. An end that is dramatic and unexpected as the plot twists and turned to its...
