Gray Rabbit Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 242 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Poor Sabina Sunday! Shes 30 years old, 100 pounds overweight, an unwilling virgin, and an accountant in a modeling agency full of lovely, skinny women. To make matters worse, she lives with her nagging Jewish mother, who never lets her forget that she isnt married and is wrong about everything. But things look up one day when Sabina overhears her boss refer to her as that fat sausage. Thats when she joins Weight Watchers, Jenny Craig, and Overeaters, determined to shed the pounds and change her life. At her very first Weight Watchers meeting, she meets Thomas, a neurotic Italian shrink, who overeats to compensate for his inability to cope with his practice and the mysterious murder of two of his patients. As they conquer the scales together, Sabina and Thomass friendship grows, but so do their problems. They find themselves stalked by a killer, and Sabinas mother and her denture-clacking cronies decide to get involved in the investigation, only to wind up in a prison cell filled with colorful prostitutes. Youll ache with sympathy for Sabinas battle with the bulge, shiver as she comes up against a murderer, and laugh as she and the whole zany cast of characters get involved in one outrageous situation after another. About the Author: A. R. Alan is a born storyteller. Even in first grade, she became notorious for scribbling stories on scraps of paper. When she wasnt doing that, shed have her nose buried in a book, soaking up other peoples stories. Reading and writing stories became lifelong passions, and shes currently finishing her eleventh novel. Worldwide travel and a career that brought her in touch with a never-ending stream of interesting personalities and celebrities fanned her...
