The old English game of Questions and Commands seems to have been the same. A writer in the Gentlemen s Magazine, February, 1738, gives its formula: King I am, says one boy; another answers, I am your man. Then his majesty demands what service will he do him; to which the obsequious courtier replies, The best, and worst, and all I can. No. 54. Follow Your Leader. In this game, the leader having been chosen by speaking first, or counting out, the rest must do whatever he does. It is usually played out-of-doors, and the children follow their leader in a row, across roads, fences, and ditches, jumping from heights, and creeping under barriers. We are told that the game is played in a peculiarly reckless fashion in the South, where the leader will sometimes go under a horse s legs or between...
