

Career as a News Reporter: Journalist (Paperback)

By Institute for Career Research

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .SOME OF THE MOST EXCITING CAREERS today can be found in the field of journalism. Journalism includes reporters, correspondents, television and radio broadcast analysts, photojournalists, editors, and online content writers. Reporters and other journalists gather information and write news stories that are read and viewed by the general public. Reporters may interview knowledgeable sources, examine documents, attend meetings, or go to the scene of newsworthy events to gather information. They then write articles for newspapers, magazines and newsletters. They also create broadcast reports for television stations, radio stations, and online media outlets. Editors (usually former reporters) work with journalists to help craft solid articles and reports. Would you make a good reporter? Certainly technical training is required, but personal traits are also important for success. Are you a clear, concise writer who enjoys the creative process? Do you like solving puzzles - the challenge of digging out the answers to important questions and public issues? Are you good with technology and open to learning new skills in a rapidly evolving industry? Do you have good organizational skills? Can...
